“POST-MODERN ENDODONTICS: WHAT’S NEW IN AN EVER-CHANGING WORLD”

DR. RYAN M. WALSH

For over a decade Dr. Ryan M. Walsh has been educating dentists and endodontists to provide the highest level of evidence-based patient-centered endodontic care.

Dr. Walsh is a board-certified endodontist and maintains a full-time private practice (limited to endodontics) in Keller, Texas. As a board-certified endodontist, Dr. Walsh is abreast of the latest techniques of clinical and patient management.

Dr. Walsh is actively involved in translational and clinical research focusing on bioactive materials, resorption processes and treatment, irrigation techniques, and tooth cracks and fractures. He has published multiple peer-reviewed journal articles and has presented both national and international audiences. Dr. Walsh maintains a full-time private practice limited to endodontics in Keller, Texas.

When not in private practice, he teaches endodontic residents and dental students at Texas A&M College of Dentistry (Dallas, TX) about the latest advances in endodontics. Dr. Walsh is a Diplomate of the American Board of Endodontics, member of the American Association of Endodontists, American Dental Association, and Texas Dental Association. Dr. Walsh is the Past President of the DFW Metroplex Endodontic Society and a founding board member of the Seattle Study Club of Fort Worth.
